Inquiring minds want to know... how much exactly is the discount rate for Zijing Dormitories?

Well most students aren't even aware of a discount rate, but there is a discount rate. This information might help you decide which room you can afford, when you can afford it, and whether or not to seal that room during the holidays.

This rate can only be as current as the date it's published since you never know when Tsinghua might change it. But even so this should give you a good idea of what the rate is like. Unfortunately, I don't have the rate of Double Rooms, but I have managed to acquire the rates for AB Rooms and Single Rooms.
